Higher level of cooperation

HushSpot is a new quality of teamwork. Modern multi-person hot-desking workstation, fully equipped with all the necessary accessories for effective work, such as: power sockets, organisers for office accessories, space for plants, storage and additional LED lighting. It helps to save space in the office by reducing the required space for workstations. This is a solution dedicated to flexible office spaces, where the hybrid model of cooperation has become commonplace. HushSpot works wherever there is a need to optimize office space while maximizing the efficiency of tasks performed in the workplace. It is a solution for teams that want to work together, close to each other.

The universal design of the solution fits into any office space. Thanks to its well-designed ergonomics, hushSpot stimulates group interactions and supports people in individual work.
